

Chican@ & Latin@ Studies Program (CLS) Classes for Fall 2017

¡OJO! CLS provides this document to help students with academic planning. It is based on the UW-Madison Schedule of Classes as of 7/18/2017 and may not reflect changes since that date. If information this document conflicts with the UW online schedule, the timetable is correct. ¡OJO!
Course	Topic	Time	Instructor	Brief Description
CLS 201 51567	Introduction to Chican@/Latin@ Studies Cap: 40 (All sections)	9:30am -10:45am T & Th Ingraham 222	Kimberly Hernandez	Introduction to Chican@ and Latin@ Studies designed to introduce students to various interdisciplinary and transnational literatures on the study of Chican@s & Latin@s in the U.S. It offers a survey of scholarly literature, paradigms, theories, and debates within the field pertaining to the historical, economic, cultural, and sociopolitical dimensions of the experience of people of Latin American descent in what is now the United States. Themes will include migration, labor, civil rights, community development, education, gender and more.
CLS 201 62662		9:55am - 10:45am M W F Ingraham 214	Carla Gonzalez
CLS 201 67323		1;20-2:15 M W F Van Hise 594	Roberta Fernandez
CLS 321 66238	Chican@ & Latin@ Educational Justice Cap:	3:00 pm – 4:15 pm M W Teacher Ed 438	Mariana Pacheco	This course will address the ways Chican@s/Latin@s in the contemporary U.S. have struggled for educational justice. It explores key educational issues, major social movements, and legal cases, and local and national efforts that have established important precedents. It then examines how these precedents and enactments pertain to teaching, learning, and curriculum practices that reflect key tenets of educational justice for Chican@/Latin@ students. Sophomore standing required.
CLS 330 59635	Topics in Chican@ & Latin@ Studies: Community-Based Research Cap:25	2:30pm - 3:45pm T & Th 1325 Computer Science	Revel Sims	This course will explore the methods, practices, and values associated with Community-Based Participatory Action Research (CBPAR) by studying housing issues within the Latinx community in partnership with a local nonprofit. Although students need no prior research experience they should be prepared to devote time outside of the classroom to working with the partner organization and be interested in actively learning and engaging with community members.
CLS 347 60301	Race, Ethnicity, and the Media Cross Listed: Comm Arts Cap: 25	9:30am -10:45am T & Th Education L177	Lecturer TBA	The course provides students with critical tools and understanding of the main topics of concern and debate in the study of race and ethnicity in U.S. films, entertainment, television and popular culture.
CLS 461 61161 (lect)	The American West to 1850 Crosslisted:Hist Cap: 72	8:00am - 9:15am T & Th (Enroll through discussion sect.) Science 180	Megan Stanton	North American frontiers through the period of the U.S. invasion of Mexico. Major Indian cultures of North America; the frontiers and differing imperial systems of Spain, France, and England; and the westward movement of the United States through 1850.
CLS 467 66270	U.S. Latin@ Literature Cap: 24	11:00am-12:15pm T & Th Ingraham 120	Rubén Medina	This course will study and trace the development of the literature of Latinos and Latinas in the United States, exploring that literature's definition, its trends, and the incorporation of newer migrant communities. The course will also address the literature's poetics and present state, and explore the intersectionality of ethnicity, class, gender, migration, and sexuality, through literary representations.

CLS 530 53893	Chican@ & Latin@ Social Movements. Cap: 25	9:30am -10:45am T & Th Grainger 2175	Armando Ibarra	Over the course of the last century Chican@s and Latin@s have organized and mobilized their communities and workplaces to make local and broad demands for social and economic justice and equality. Often, this organizing has been done at a grassroots level and within broader social movement building contexts. This course will study Chicana/o and Latina/a organizing from the 1940s to the contemporary moment within the literature on social movements and collective action.
CLS 530 65672	Strategies for Effective Organizational Practice Crosslist: URPL Cap:24	4:00pm – 5:15pm T & Th Humanities 2115	Alfonso Morales	This class addresses the ways public sector organizations can improve their effectiveness in the light of growing fiscal and political constraints. Students will build the knowledge and skills needed to work in bureaucratic environments. The class will devote significant attention to a practical understanding of organizations, communication skills, life in bureaucracies, and your professional development.
CLS 530 65961	Working with Latinx Populations Crosslist: Counseling Psych Cap: 24	2:25 pm - 5:25 pm W Van Hise 583	Steve Quintana	This blended learning course will involve students in an effort develop online materials to help service providers work effectively with people of Latin American descent in the United States. CLS faculty from a variety of disciplines will contribute video lectures, readings, and assignments. The course will be of interest to staff of community agencies, educators, healthcare providers, students interested in service-learning, and CLS certificate students.
CLS 699	Directed Study			Credits for self- directed student learners conducting independent reading and research under the mentorship and guidance of a faculty member

DARS EXCEPTIONS FOR CHICLA CERTIFICATE, FALL 2017

Course	Topic	Time	Instructor
COUN PSY 225	Coming to Terms with Cultural Diversity: Invitation to Dialogue	Online, Multiple Face-to-face discussion sections. Enroll through discussion section	Alberta Gloria, Lynnet Uttal
COUN PSY 300	Displacement, Resettlement, & Working with Refugee Families	Online	Lynet Uttal
COUN PSY 300	Immigrant Health and Well-Being	4:00 pm – 5:15 pm T & Th Grainger 1140	Carmen Valdez
SOC 134	Problems of American Racial & Ethnic Minorities	Multiple times & locations. Enroll through discussion sections.	TBA
LACIS 440	US & Latin America from Colonial Era to Present	9:30 am – 10:45 am T & Th Ingraham 122	Barrett, Patrick Stephen
POL SCI 601	Cuba-U.S. Relations Past and Present	1:20-3:15 Tues. Humanities 2251	Ernesto Domínguez, Tinker Visiting Professor (from the U. of Havana)
POL SCI 825	Race and Politics in the United States	3:30 pm -5:25 pm Mon. Van Hise 474	Márquez, Benjamin